

Dear Learner,

A Warm Welcome to the course overview on how to overcome stage fear with 'Public Speaking Skills'.

This personal development program is designed to help you overcome stage fear. You will not only be able to display confidence, you will also master the art of having your audience captivated with the way you speak and present. You will learn of effective ways of transferring your knowledge with comfort in a competent and confident manner to a person or a group of people. You will walk through a series of lectures that will take you through a step-by-step guide with content, quizzes, video lessons, assignments for a 'Think-Feel-Do' experience.

Check the drop-down menu in each Chapter for more details.

Program Outcome:

1. Visualize the needs of a great public speaking experience.
2. Relate to the different types of speaking opportunities.
3. Tell what to keep in mind before you walk towards the stage.
4. Explain the different ways to begin your public speech.
5. Relate to details before, during and after your public speech.
6. Define the do's and don'ts of public speaking and presentation skills.
7. Identify interesting endings for a lasting impression.
8. Manage stage fright with effective ways of confidence building tips.

9. Use tips on how to respond to post session questions, effectively

What's More!

There is an evaluation assignment of your public speaking skills based on your learning after the course. A scorecard and will be provided on submission of speech for evaluation.

Let's get started!